ON THE COVER

DONNA ORVIS, MWR MARKETING CHIEF

The pieces of the puzzle will fall into place this June as MWR puts together a great summer of events.

Join us June 22, at our Annual Riverfest, sponsored by MWR and AUSA. This is a great day on the St. Lawrence River. Tickets are $15 adult, and $5 children 6-12, under 5 free. Riverfest is truly "must attend" event - price includes transportation from Fort Drum, children play area on the main land, 1 hour tour on Uncle Sam's Boat where you will get a small glimpse of the beautiful Thousand Islands and its history. Your first stop will be at Heart Island, home of Boldt Castle - built by George Boldt of the Waldorf Astoria fame, for his wife Louise. The castle's construction survived many years of being abandoned. The Thousand Island Bridge Authority assumed ownership and has steadily continued the renovations. While on Heart Island enjoy a free BBQ sponsored by AUSA including hamburgers, hot dogs, salads, and soda. After a day on the River, enjoy the shops and sites of the village of Alexandria Bay.

One of Fort Drum premier MWR locations is Remington Park. In 2003 over 2 million dollars was spent on the parks renovations. These renovations included new lodges, beach, pavilions, fishing area, and walking trails. So kick off your summer at the park with Family Day June 26. Festivities kick off at 11am and run throughout the day. See Page 9 for schedule of events. Remember this is your park and is open daily from May 1-October 30. Free and easy access makes this an ideal place for families to relax during the summer months.

The final piece of the puzzle for June is the "Salute to the Nation" ceremony. This free event starts at 1pm with midway and children's games, live music, food sales, and military displays. The Salute to the Nation will begin at 5pm followed by music in the MWR fest tents and a concert at 8:30pm. The week's events will end with the grand finale of fireworks at 9:30pm.

To complete the puzzle be sure to check out Parks and Recreation for the many discounted amusement park tickets, area attractions, or camping and fishing gear. For the children make a stop at any of the CYS facilities to get your copy of this summer's programs and activities. Have a safe and sunny summer!!
